EDITORIAL

By the way, wasn't it Kermit who said "Pop always wants to be the corpse at a funeral?"

John Bull to Verdun: "Hold the fort, for I am coming when it is over."

The New York small boys who ran away to "get Villa" evidently do not think that Carranza has been doing all that could be expected.

"Our fleet," explains London, "was looking for a fight." Well they got it.

North Sea fight may go down in history as the battle of John Bull Run.

"Roosevelt 'Still' at Oyster Bay," goes a headline. Well, it's the very first time.

A few more North Sea battles and our navy will stand first without adding a vessel.

All the Supreme Court aspirants seemed to think it was Mr. Hughes' patriotic duty to run.

Washington reports that Uruguay and Guatemala are strongly backing our Mexican policy. This certainly takes a tremendous weight off our minds.

Due to the prevalence of the high price of drugs many citizens are taking fresh air, sunbathing, and going away with excellent results.

General railroad strike would paralyze the country and inflict enormous loss upon all classes of people. But if the railroads yield to the demands of the brotherhoods, they must turn to the Interstate Commerce Commission for permission to raise rates. And in the end the consumer will, as usual have to pay the freight.

Talk about hard times. What do mean, say? The wages of the workingman today will buy more comfort, culture, pleasure or whatever he pleases to purchase than ever before in the world's history. People who are continually harping about hard times are not only common nuisances, but public enemies. Cease your howling and turn in and do something for humanity and self.

Liberality never kills a town. Every public enterprise ought to receive encouragement. When you give a dollar towards improving the town you do not throw away your money, but simply make a good investment.

Of all the cranks the crankiest is the chronic pessimist. He is always whining like a half starved dog with a tin can tied to his tail. When the sky is beautifully clear, he is positively certain that everything will dry up and there will be a scarcity. When the gentle rains begin to fall he laments and is afraid the crops will be spoiled. He is always expecting some great calamity, misfortune of some kind or of being laid up with rheumatism. No matter how rosy the apples look, or how juicy the pears, he is afraid that they are wormy at the core and can't be kept until Christmas. The country is going to the bow wows and everybody is a dirty and dishonest rascal. His own peaceful and progressive town is alright, but he is convinced that it never will improve so very much. The high church spire is a notable landmark, but it might fall down some day and do great damage. He himself enjoys excellent health at present, but he is sure that he won't live long—and he shouldn't. The world would be much happier without such cranky pessimists.

PARK MOVEMENT GETS GOOD SUPPORT

Actual Work Begun Thursday Morning.

Several scores of women and men pledged themselves to make this Park one of the most attractive in Southwestern Kentucky, which will be a source of pleasure and comfort to many. Let every woman and man get interested in this movement and help, if nothing more, for the pleasure the younger generation will derive from it.

For fear some do not understand the conditions under which this land has been offered for years. Here they are in a nut-shell: All of you know Uncle Henry Dees, Well, he's just as liberal as you please.

For he has given the use of a piece of land And wants it used as a park you understand.

It's for the benefit of the town and people therein. As each and everyone are very dear to him.

Now of this Park he wants us to be proud, And have it well equipped to entertain a crowd.

Some think, the five years the lease calls for, not many, But you help make it a success and he'll make it twenty.

For all of you know Mr. Dees is the "Daddy" of our town, And the Park once built he will never let be torn down.

Here is another point of his liberality I think, don't you? For each dollar any man gives he will give two.

Just suppose we were to give fifty dollars or more, With three times the amount we could build pretty things galore.

Get enthusiastic and join the Park crowd, We are sure of the place you would be proud.

Remember this Park belongs to every one, and it will take all hands to get the work done.

On the day that is set for work, Come one, come all, don't be a shirk.

MISCELLANEOUS

Somehow or other a father never feels like whipping his son for fight when his son wins the fight.

A woman is as old as she looks when she gets up in the morning.

Why is it that lots of people you know who haven't half as much business as you have seem to get along better than you do?

When a man's hair comes out, it is gone. But a girl can always pull it out of the comb and wear it on her head again.

The old-fashioned girl who used to take saffra and sulphur and molasses in spring now has a daughter who takes Banks Boozie Bitters and Rums Rye Renovator all year around.

Tell her not to cry and she will howl all the harder. Tell her to go ahead and cry all she wants to and she will quit crying and tell you what she thinks of you.

Every time you knock an enemy you advertise him. The way to treat him is to ignore him so completely that the world will soon forget his name.

When a boy asks his Mother's permission to go somewhere and is refused, he wishes he were a man and could do as he pleased. Then he grows up to be a man and asks his wife's permission to go somewhere, and is refused.

A wife has her suspicions but doesn't say anything when she catches her husband using her talcum powder. But she simply has to explode when she catches him using her perfume.

Any time two men act polite to each other you can bet that they haven't much use for each other.

The average Princess may be willing to admit that Mother is a Queen. But Father looks more like a Deuce.

Is your Cigarette a miser?"

Some are, you know. They can't help holding back their full taste—it's part of their "make-up."

It's different with Favorites. There's a cigarette that gives freely ALL the hidden taste, and aroma, and "body" that some cigarettes just can't give you.

Why do Favorites give you all? Because their extra free-drawing STRAIGHT CUT tobacco makes them do it!

Try Favorites today. You'll notice the difference between ALL-flavor and part-flavor, with the first puff.

This will be a better world when the Reformers agitate the fact that it is just as disgraceful to get drunk on Food as it is to get drunk or Boozed.

We don't know just where the Biggest Diamond is at the present moment. But it is mounted in the Engagement Ring that He has just slipped on Her finger.

Wouldn't you hate to have the world judge you by the way your furniture looked on the Moving Van?

A healthy humorist gets off good things even in business letters. Here is a good sample from the pen of James E. Wallace:

While this is unsolicited, I would be glad to have you print my testimonial in your valuable sheet among other testimonials. Will say I had the malaria about two months this winter and tried several kinds of remedies and I never found anything that did the work until I tried Hays' Specific and I must say it does the work, as I find that Hays' Specific and Malaria won't work together.

I expect to keep Hays' Specific in my house. The children won't cry for it, as some say, but I find after they take a few doses they laugh and play because they feel good after taking two or three doses.

JAMES E. WALLACE.
Hays' Specific, the great system tonic, is sold and fully guaranteed by Turnbow & Son of Hazel.

There is more Catarrh in this section of the country than all other diseases put together, and for years it was considered to be incurable. Doctors prescribed local remedies, and by constantly failing to cure with local applications pronounced it incurable. It is a local disease, greatly influenced by constitutional conditions and therefore requires constitutional treatment. Hays' Catarrh Cure, made and prepared by F. J. Cheney & Co., is a constitutional blood purifier and acts on the mucous surfaces. One hundred dollars reward for any case cured by this cure. Send 25c for a testimonial.
